Strengthens Latin America Distribution with Adistec Partnership

Includes Entire Portfolio of ATTO High-Performance Storage and Network Connectivity Products.

ATTO Technology, Inc.

A global leader of network, storage connectivity and infrastructure solutions for data-intensive computing environments, announces a distribution agreement with Adistec Corp. that extends the availability of the ATTO high-performance storage and network connectivity portfolio into Latin America.

Adistec is a value-added distributor of data center, networking and security solutions, specializing in the discrete business and technology requirements that vary widely from country to country.

Adistec complements its product portfolio with cloud services running in several proprietary data centers, as well as extensive consulting and educational services.

Many media, IT and networking companies, including Fortune 1,000 brands, rely on Adistec to extend their market reach and ensure customer delivery. ATTO joins their close partners Intel, Quantum and Avid, among others, in leveraging the hard work of the entire Adistec team.

“Adistec has been doing amazing work for our partners in Latin America where there is a lot of market potential.”

“Working with Adistec was an obvious choice - we look forward to a long and successful partnership.”

Tim Klein, president and CEO, ATTO Technology.

“Our Media & Entertainment business unit continues to grow.”

“We are very proud that ATTO Technology has chosen us to represent them across Latin America.”

Marcelo Gardelin, Adistec Media & Entertainment Director - Americas.

With this distribution partnership, ATTO Technology's entire high performance storage and network connectivity portfolio is available in Latin America, keeping pace with growing demand not only in business and government data centers but in the television, film, music and education markets as well.

Purchase ATTO products through leading Value Added Resellers, System Integrators and the ATTO Web Store.
